

Pupils are invited to take part in the #LotsOfSocks day on the 21st March 2024 to raise awareness of Down Syndrome and the challenges of stereotyping people with disabilities.

Pupils can wear any socks with their school uniform they could be odd socks, crazy socks, bright socks or interesting socks and bring a donation of £1.

Pupils will be taking part in activities exploring stereotypes and how we can challenge perceptions that people have about ourselves and others.

* Please note this is not a non-uniform day
